1.

Man How many bags will you be checking?

Woman None. I just have one carry-on bag.

2.

Woman May I see your boarding pass, please?

Man Here you are. Do I need to fill out an immigration card?

3.

Woman Please put your briefcase in the overhead compartment.

4.

Man We are getting ready for take-off. Please fasten your seatbelt.

5.

Woman We're getting ready for landing. Please put your seatback table away.

3.059

1.

Woman Good morning. May I see your ticket and passport, please?

Man Here you are. And, could I get an aisle seat?

Woman Mm ... let me see. Uh, yes. No problem. Seat 32B.

Man Thanks.

Woman How many bags are you checking?

Man Just one. And I have one carry-on bag.

Woman Fine. Here's your boarding pass.

3.060

2.

Woman Excuse me, sir. You can't leave your briefcase on the seat.

Man But the overhead compartment is full.

Woman Then you have to put it under the seat in front of you.

3.061

3.

Woman Would you like the chicken or the fish for lunch?

Man The fish, please.

Woman OK, oh ... Mm, let me check with the other flight attendant. Sally, any more fish? No?
Sorry, sir, we're out of fish.

Man OK. Chicken, then.

Woman And what would you like to drink?

3.062

4.

Man We've begun our final descent into San Francisco. In preparation for landing, please put the seatback tables away, return your seats to their upright position and make sure your seatbelt is securely fastened.

3.063

5.

Woman Welcome to the United States. Passport and immigration card, please.

Man Here you are.

Woman Where are you coming from today, sir?

Man Osaka, Japan.

Woman And you're going ...?

Man Uh, to Dallas, Texas.

Woman And the purpose of your visit?

Man Just visiting friends.

Woman Staying with friends then, huh? How long?

Man Two weeks.

Woman Enjoy your stay. Next!

3.064

1.

Man 1 Hi, we'd like to book a place downtown, not too expensive.

Woman A luxury hotel, budget hotel, youth hostel ... ?

Man 2 A reasonable hotel – with a pool? We want a pool.

Woman Sure. There's The Crown, a nice budget hotel close to everything.

Man 1 Good. A room with twin beds for five nights?

Woman OK ... sixty-eight dollars per night including breakfast.

Man 2 That's fine.

3.065

2.

Man 1 How do we get into town?

Woman You can take the hotel shuttle bus, a taxi or a train.

Man 2 Which is the cheapest?

Woman The shuttle bus, but it's not the fastest. It has ten stops before your hotel.

Man 1 When's the next one?

Woman You just missed it. The next one's in an hour.

Man 2 We can't wait for a whole hour. Let's take the train. Uh, we don't have to wait for an hour, do we?

Woman No, it's every ten minutes and only takes thirty minutes.

Man 2 And we get tickets ... ?

Woman Here. Two tickets, Central Station. Here you are. Sixteen dollars.

Man 1 I'll get that.

Woman It's a two-minute walk from the stations to your hotel. Here's a map.

Man 2 And we catch the train ... ?

Woman Around the corner. The next train leaves in ... three minutes.

3.066

3.

Man 1 Hi, check in, please.

Woman Certainly. Do you have a reservation?

Man 1 Yes, it's under Maguire.

Woman Mm. Here it is. Twin beds and a kitchenette?

Man 1 No. We didn't ask for a kitchenette.

Woman It's the same price with or without one.

Man 1 Oh, OK.

Woman OK, just fill in the form and I'll get your key.

Man 1 OK.

Woman So, seventh floor, room seven-oh-three. Take the elevator behind you. The café has breakfast from seven to ten, and there's a laundromat on the second floor.

Man 1 Second floor ... thanks.

Man 2 And, where's the swimming pool?

Woman Third floor ... but I'm afraid the pool is closed this week.

Man 2 Oh, you're kidding!

3.067

Example: Could I get an aisle seat?

1. Would you like the chicken or the fish for lunch?

2. Passport and immigration card please.
3. We've begun our final descent to San Francisco.
4. Make sure your seatbelt is securely fastened.
5. You can take the hotel shuttle bus.
6. I'm afraid the pool is closed this week.

- John Hi Tracy, long time no see.
- Tracy Oh hi, John, how's it going? I haven't seen you since the wedding.
- John Not bad, I just got back from a business trip to Singapore.
- Tracy How was it?
- John Well I was only there for a few days, but I really loved it.
- Tracy I've never been. What did you like about it?
- John Well, for a start, the food is wonderful. There are three main ethnic groups in Singapore – Chinese, Malay and Indian – so you can find lots of different types of food.
- Tracy Sounds great! Any interesting things to do there?
- John I went to the Night Safari, that was pretty cool.
- Tracy Night Safari? What's that?
- John It's the world's first nocturnal zoo. You go at night and see nocturnal animals in their natural habitat.
- Tracy Interesting... Where did you stay in Singapore?
- John That was the best part! I stayed at the Marina Bay Sands. It's a luxury hotel, made up of three towers that are connected at the top. Have you ever seen a picture of it? Here, look at this, I have some pictures on my phone.
- Tracy Wow... That looks really unique ... but to be honest, I prefer to stay in youth hostels when I travel.
- John Really? Why's that?
- Tracy Well, I had such an amazing experience when I went backpacking around Thailand. I met lots of interesting people, and best of all I spent less money.
- John That's a good point but I wasn't too worried about money this time.
- Tracy How come?
- John My company paid for everything! It was a business trip, remember?
- Tracy Oh yeah! You're a lucky guy.
